Outdoor Equipment - Tents

The Scott's are avid outdoorsmen. They love spending their summers camping and hiking trails in state parks close to their home. This summer, they have decided to take an extended summer trip to Glacier National Park in Montana to try their hand at fly fishing. The Scott's have three kids and have allowed each to invite one friend for the family vacation. They need to purchase a tent with a lot of room so everyone can fit comfortably and have room for their gear. Mr. Scott has checked the forecast for the trip and it is calling for a high chance of rain. They want to purchase a high quality, sturdy tent. They need to buy additional camping items for the trip, so the best tent for the money is a priority.

Which tent will be the best for the Scott's? Mr. Scott has a $100 gift card from Academy's that can be used toward the purchase of camping gear but the family is not limited to $100 for the tent purchase.

Activewear

Jenny is a bit of a health nut and very active. She goes to the gym virtually daily and gets in a variety of workouts throughout the week. She runs 4 days a week and does a yoga class twice a week at the university health center. As a student, she takes advantage of the large campus to run on the not-so-busy streets in the evenings when it cooler and there is less traffic. Dick's Sporting Goods is her only source of buying activewear locally, so she must pick from what they have in stock. Her waist size is about 26" and her inseam is about 27". They should be durable, stylish, and cool. Her budget for a good pair of leggings is $70 but she likes a good deal when she sees one. Pockets for her dorm key and her phone are important, especially when running.

The Dell XPS 15 is a brilliant laptop in its own right, but it really excels when it comes to creative work, making it one of the best laptops on sale at Walmart for creatives. It comes with a brilliant 15-inch InfinityEdge screen, and the very top-end version has a 4K colour-accurate display that makes it perfect for creative work. It also boasts plenty of processing power as well, making it a dab hand at rendering large files. It is pricey, however, but if you have a bit of a bigger budget, then this is definitely a laptop worth considering.

Sunglasses

Darius left his sunglasses on the fish cleaning station at the public boat ramp. They are gone and he needs to replace them. As a fishing guide, steward of fishing resources, and active member of the Coastal Conservation Association on the Gulf Coast, sunglasses are important for many reasons to include glare from the water and protection from UV rays. Being a fishing guide requires him to wear them pretty much all day where he is on the water going from fishing spot to fishing spot. They need to be comfortable, block sunlight glare from the sun overhead as well as off the deck of the boat and surface of the water. Lightweight is important for that reason. He stops at Academy and these are the only options available to him. Sunglasses are just as important to him as his fishing rod, so they need to be high quality and they should be stylish but priority if functionality. His budget is about $200 to $225

Ola by Maui Jim (Ola-764)

Review: These polarized aviators have a contemporary rectangular shape and are made with glass that, the manufacturer says, is 20 percent thinner and lighter than standard glass. The Ola comes in black, brown, gunmetal and burgundy, allowing for fashion statements on the aft deck, and the lenses are built for bright, direct sunlight, including the glare off gelcoat.

General Features

- Rugged Maui Jim sunglasses feature light-weight frame materials blended with Maui Jim's patented PolarizedPlus® lenses to produce a durable sunglasses line cool enough for daily wear.
- Maui Jim Ola-764 is a Full Rim frame for Men and Women, which is made of Monel & Plastic.
- This model features a Rectangular shape, with a Double Bridge.
- Ideal for usage with: Fashion, Everyday Driving.
- Maui Jim Ola-764 Sunglasses come with a cleaning cloth and protective carrying case.
- This product is made in Italy.
- These sunglasses are available with polarized lenses on certain colors. Polarized lenses have a filter within the lens that blocks the wavelengths of light that cause glare. They can greatly enhance contrast and allow for greater depth of vision, especially in water. They are ideal for any situation where glare reduction is necessary, like driving or playing sports.

Wayfarer Pop by Ray-Ban

Review: These are the kinds of sunglasses that fashionistas adore, combining the classic Wayfarer shape and trendy tortoise-shell temples with bright green, orange, blue or red frames—and Ray-Ban does mean vibrant green, orange, blue or red, in hues that you might find on a kindergartner's color wheel. Wayfarer Pops are fun as well as functional, with polarized lenses in muted gray or classic yellow. The yellow lenses reportedly block not only 85 percent of light, but also most of blue light, which recent studies have shown to be a key culprit in tired eyes.

Pescador w/ Side Shield by Costa del Mar

Review: The Pescador is made from recycled fishing nets, helping to keep the oceans clear of plastic pollution while protecting your retinas from the sun. They have a larger frame, a square shape and side shields (optional) to block out almost all the rays that beat down, and they're made for fishermen who are in sunlight all day. Lenses come in blue or copper-silver mirror, and frames can be blue or gray rubber. A fun fact is that, like the materials from which they're made, these sunglasses themselves are recyclable, making the eyewear a conservation statement as well as a fashionable one.

General Features

- Costa specializes in sunglasses for the fishing enthusiast. Custom-made lens treatments and state-of-the-art lens manufacturing processes mean Costas can stand up equally well to salt water and fresh water. Costa sunglasses offer 100% UV protection in a wide variety of high glare or low light lens colors. Not only for fishing, the various specialized lenses can be used for golf, driving, and water skiing (just a few of the possibilities!) These anti-corrosive frames are perfect for any fisherman, or just someone looking for one of the best pairs of sunglasses out there.
- Costa Pescador - Untangled Collection is a Full Rim frame for Men and Women, which is made of Recycled Nylon Fishing Nets. Made exclusively from recycled fishing nets to prevent nets from polluting our oceans and harming marine life.
- This model features a Rectangular shape, with a Single Bridge.
- This model features the following temple detail: PLUSfoam recyclable nose and temple pads
- Ideal for usage with: Sports, Water Sports, Everyday Driving, Fishing, Salt Water, Fresh Water.
- Costa Pescador - Untangled Collection Sunglasses come with a cleaning cloth and protective case.
- These sunglasses are available with mirror coating option on certain colors. Coatings are suitable for protection from intense light. A mirror coating reflects back light and reduces the amount of light passing through the lens. This makes it more comfortable for eyes in very sunny conditions.
- These sunglasses are available with polarized lenses on certain colors. Polarized lenses have a filter within the lens that blocks the wavelengths of light that cause glare. They can greatly enhance contrast and allow for greater depth of vision, especially in water. They are ideal for any situation where glare reduction is necessary, like driving or playing sports.

Jawbreaker by Oakley

Review: The Jawbreaker is a sport design for those who are breaking a sweat out on the boat all day—there are even air vents built into the construction. The look is awesome in bright color combinations; the Retina Burn version matches neon yellow frames to fuchsia lenses. Replacement lenses are available in 20 colors, so wearers can customize their look. The Jade Iridium (green) version is made for the bright light of boating and reportedly filters out 99 percent of reflected glare.

General Features

- These frames are for athletes, specifically designed for cycling and sports that include water.
- Oakley enlarged the upper peripheral region of the lenses in order to extend its field of vision and make these sunglasses optimal for cycling.
- Switchlock™ Technology is easy to extend or shorten the temples, making them helmet adjustable.
- Sunglasses are at the level of ANSI Z87.1 regarding impact resistance.
- Oakley Jawbreaker features a Full Rim frame front.
- Unobtainium® is a material of the frame which increases its grip when it comes into contact with water or sweat giving the wearer a secure fit.
- Prizm™ fine tunes colors in order to optimize vision in low or intense lighting. 100% UV protection.
- The Jawbreaker is available in an Alternate Fit which is preferred by those with higher cheekbones and a wider nose bridge.
- Made of O Matter which is an Oakley material that is lightweight and flexible.
- Jawbreaker Sunglasses feature a Wrap Around shape that protects peripheral vision.
- Frame front is emphasized with a Saddle Bridge, which distributes weight more evenly on the face, making the frames more sturdy and slip-resistant.
- Unobtainium earsocks protect ears from water and wind.
- Available with a mirror coating option on certain colors which filters backlight in intense light.
- Available with polarized lenses on certain colors which greatly reduce glare.
- Jawbreaker Sunglasses are available with prescription lenses here.
- Jawbreaker Sunglasses come with Oakley carrying case and cleaning cloth.

Sunglasses

Darius left his sunglasses on the fish cleaning station at the public boat ramp. They are gone and he needs to replace them. As a fishing guide and active member of the Coastal Conservation Association on the Gulf Coast, sunglasses are important for many reasons to include glare from the water and protection from UV rays. Being a fishing guide requires him to wear them pretty much all day where he is on the water going from fishing spot to fishing spot. They need to be comfortable, block sunlight glare from the sun overhead as well as off the deck of the boat and surface of the water. Lightweight is important for that reason. He stops at Academy and these are the only options available to him. Sunglasses are just as important to him as his fishing rod, so they need to be high quality and they should be stylish but priority if functionality. His budget is about $200 to $225.
